III. FELLOWSHIP OFFICE BACKGROUND:

United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) in China is the China country office of the United Nations Development Programme – the global development network of the United Nations. UNDP has been working in China over the past 40 years, partnering to advance various phases of China's development. We provide development advisory services and implement projects through innovation and applying our international experience and network in three pillars: supporting China's transformation to a low-carbon economy so that more people enjoy a cleaner, healthier environment; facilitating China's shift to using the SDGs as a standard for its inclusive development, economic decisions and investments, and supporting China's international cooperation and south-south engagement for SDG attainment.

The Small Grants Programme (SGP) is a corporate programme of the Global Environment Facility (GEF) implemented by the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) since 1992. SGP grant-making in over 125 countries promotes community-based innovation, capacity development, and empowerment through sustainable development projects of local civil society organizations with special consideration for indigenous peoples, women, and youth. SGP has supported over 20,000 community-based projects in biodiversity conservation, climate change mitigation and adaptation, prevention of land degradation, protection of international waters, and reduction of the impact of chemicals, while generating sustainable livelihoods.

UNDP/GEF SGP also established two new partnerships with The David and Lucile Packard Foundation in 2021 and Vanke Foundation in 2022.

With the cooperation and financial support from The David and Lucile Packard Foundation, a Joint Programme for Supporting NGOs in China on Marine Conservation was initiated. The focus of this programme will be on supporting local NGOs on coastal and marine conservation, especially supporting projects led by women and empowering women's participation in sustainable management of coastal and marine resources. It will result in community-based and biodiversity-friendly sustainable models, best practices and approaches which promote conservation and the sustainable use of threatened ecosystems and species in important coastal/ marine ecosystems.

The project "Zero Waste" Community Development with the cooperation and financial support from Vanke Foundation supports NGOs to use the three Rs (reduce, reuse, and recycle) principle of waste management hierarchy at the community level. The short-term goal is to support NGOs to carry out all categories of domestic waste management in the community. The long-term goal is to enhance the capability of NGOs in resolving related problems and strengthening the influence of NGOs on sound waste management. Ultimately, it strives to achieve the goal of establishing a "net zero waste" community, and to build up a model, which contribute to the construction of an 'Ecological Civilization'.

Fellowship Scope: The Fellow will have the opportunity to work closely with the SGP team in the effective implementation of the programme work plan with specific responsibilities.
